

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

There is already too much consolidation at present and if anything there should be MORE regulation to break up the conglomerates that exist now. As things stand now, I feel I cannot count on ANY of the major mainstream media outlets to present unbiased accurate reporting. I now get my news through alternative, independent media or compare reports from various foreign news organizations as US mainstream news seems too much like Bush/republican propaganda now.
